Detailed Report:

The Visit to “Bless Society for Rural and Urban Development, And Shelter for orphans and visually and mentally challenged children” was successfully organized by the Department of Business Administration (BBA) at AIGS on 25 th February 2026. The visit focused on providing Practical exposure to students about humanity, compassion, and empathy. And Responsibility It reminded everyone that small acts of kindness can create a big difference in someone’s life.

A circular was issued to students encouraging voluntary contributions. The response from the students was overwhelming and beyond imagination. Our kind, humble, and compassionate students saved their pocket money and came forward with generous contributions. They donated rice, edible oil, groceries, and stationery items in significant quantities. The enthusiasm and sincerity shown by them were truly remarkable. Faculty members also wholeheartedly contributed to the cause, reflecting unity and shared responsibility within the institution.

However, the most impactful part of the visit was the interaction between our students and the children at the shelter. Students spent meaningful time engaging with them, talking, sharing experiences, and offering emotional support. The innocence and courage of the children deeply moved our students. Many were filled with tears as they realized how blessed they are in their own lives. The experience was not only emotional but also inspiring and life changing.

This visit was far more than a charitable activity. It was a lesson in humanity, gratitude, and empathy. It reminded everyone that small acts of kindness can create a big difference in someone’s life.

In conclusion, the visit to Bless Society for Rural and Urban Development stands as a proud moment for AIGS The collective efforts of students, faculty, and management demonstrated that when education is combined with compassion, it creates responsible citizens who care for society. The memories of this visit will remain forever in our hearts, reminding us that service to humanity is the highest form of education and the greatest expression of kindness.

Feedback collected from the participants reflected that the visit was motivating, heart touching and students willing to participate in these types of activities and contribute how much is possible from their end .. Many students expressed that it helped them understand a sense of responsibility, compassion, kindness and made them understand and serve to the needy is the must duty of everybody.
