Detailed Report:

The Postgraduate Graduation Day Ceremony was organized with great enthusiasm and solemn dignity to celebrate the successful completion of the academic journey of the graduating students. The event commenced with a grand academic procession of the graduates, accompanied by the traditional Nadhaswaram, which created a vibrant and ceremonial atmosphere. The programme opened with a graceful classical dance performance by a student, followed by an invocation song that invoked divine blessings for the occasion. The ceremonial lighting of the lamp was gracefully performed by the Chief Guest, Guest of Honour, Principal, and student representative, symbolizing the dispelling of ignorance through the light of knowledge.

The occasion was graced by Ms. Leni Mathew, renowned Leadership Facilitator, Mentor, and Executive Coach at Emmpower, who served as the Chief Guest. Ms. Bhagirathi, Director – Academics, Acharya Institutes, attended as the Guest of Honour, while Dr. Gurunath Rao Vaidhya, Principal, presided over the programme.

Ms. Leni Mathew delivered her inspiring address from 11:15 a.m. to 11:40 a.m. She emphasized the critical importance of leadership, continuous learning, adaptability, and resilience in today's dynamic professional landscape. Encouraging the graduates to face challenges with confidence.

Ms. Bhagirathi, in her address from 11:40 a.m. to 12:00 noon, highlighted the significance of lifelong learning, professional competence, and the transformative role of higher education in developing responsible and innovative citizens.

Dr. Gurunath Rao Vaidhya, Principal, addressed the gathering from 12:00 noon to 12:15 p.m. He extended warm congratulations to the graduating students on their achievements and expressed appreciation for the dedicated efforts of faculty members and the unwavering support of parents.

The programme continued with the announcement and felicitation of the Best Outgoing Students from all seven postgraduate departments, along with the Valedictorian and other outstanding achievers. The awardees shared their heartfelt experiences and gratitude towards the institution, faculty, and families.
