Detailed Report:

The POSH Orientation Program commenced as scheduled. Ms. Shashi Kiran Shetty, Chairperson – POSH Cell and Head, Department of Social Work, welcomed the students and faculty members. She initiated the session by interacting with the students to understand their perceptions and awareness regarding gender sensitivity and safety on campus.

During the session, the Chairperson provided a detailed overview of the POSH Act, 2013, explaining key concepts such as sexual harassment, types of harassment, and the rights of students. She elaborated on the role and responsibilities of the Internal Committee (POSH Cell), the procedure for filing complaints, and assured students of confidentiality and institutional support.

The program also focused on promoting gender equity, respectful behaviour, and ethical conduct among students. Real-life examples and situational discussions were used to help students understand appropriate behaviour in academic and social settings. Emphasis was laid on creating a culture of mutual respect and accountability.

Students actively participated in the interaction and sought clarifications regarding reporting mechanisms and support systems. The session concluded with a message encouraging students to approach the POSH Cell whenever needed and to contribute positively towards maintaining a safe, inclusive, and harassment-free campus.

The orientation was informative and impactful, successfully sensitizing students and reinforcing the institution's commitment to gender justice and student well-being.
